“ Thanks John, I was pretty little when we lived on 122nd but I remember the Pusieski's fondly. Mom enjoyed your friendship.

“ I remember Laree Kitchens as Dave's Mom, I remember her back in the 1980s when I was a teenager, she was a nice lady who would pick me and Dave up from Rock concerts from Portland Oregon. My heart goes out to Joe and Dave, Michelle & Pam

“ It seems like yesterday that we were neighbors on 122nd street, and our kids played together! I cherish the memories of those good, simpler times we shared back then. Laree was a good, kind loving person and her passing will leave both good memories, and a sadness in the lives of those who knew her. By deepest sympathies to Joe and the kids for her loss. God be with you all.
