LARRY L. RALEY December 19, 1941 ~ February 21, 2023

Larry passed away peacefully on Feb. 21 in Vancouver, WA. He is survived by his loving wife, Sandy Raley; daughters, Niki Raley and Kelli Brown; grandchildren, Tyler Brown, Carter Brown, Chelsey Arnold, Kylie Brown, Keaton Brown and Tristan Boesch; great-grandson, Dante Arnold. Larry was born in Vancouver, WA, and graduated from Hudson's Bay High School in 1959. He attended Clark College, University of Washington and PSU where he received his bachelor's degree. In his younger years, Larry enjoyed his time at the Clark County Saddle Club where he competed in calf roping while riding his prized horse "Show Boy". He also served in the Air Force reserves. Larry enjoyed a long and successful career in the floor covering industry. He owned and operated C & L Interiors until he retired in 2002. After retirement, Larry was an avid golfer, tennis player and fisherman. When he and Sandy weren't travelling the world, he could be found flying his own airplane throughout Washington, Oregon and British Columbia. He also fulfilled a "bucket list" accomplishment by becoming a licensed auctioneer. Larry and Sandy owned and operated Rockin' R Llamas for many years, raising and selling many award - winning llamas. Graveside service at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on March 23rd at 1:15. Celebration of life to follow at Royal Oaks Country Club.
