

Larry T. Wolter

July 31, 1945 - July 6, 2013

Larry Tat Wolter "Bud", age 67, was born and raised in Klamath Falls, Oregon to Larry Wolter and Pearly Tatman on July 31, 1945. Bud passed away suddenly on the morning of July 6, 2013. After high school he joined the Army. When he returned home he went to work for Chevron and he retired after 25 years at the age of 50. He soon found that retirement was boring and went to work at C-tran as a C-van driver. He really enjoyed his job. Bud was a member of the Vancouver Moose lodge 1774, and an active blood donor. He will be greatly missed by his older sister, Diane Stenberg and her family; and his loving wife, Carol Wolter. He was the best daddy to his children, Tracy Roundy (husband Melvin), Nikole Wolter, Jami Williams (husband Eric), Mark Rosbach (wife Cheryl), and Kris Rosbach. Bud was the worlds best grandpa with his butterscotch candies to his 11 grandchildren. Services will be held at Evergreen Memorial Garden on Friday, July 12, 2013 at 12:30 p.m., followed by a celebration of life at the Vancouver Moose lodge.

“ To the family of Buddy, I am deeply sorry for your loss. I have known Buddy for a lifetime. We started school together in the 1st grade and went all the way through school together. He had a million dollar smile and was as nice and kind as wonderful as his smile always was. He also loved to have a lot of fun and always had that twinkle in his eye. Once Buddy was your friend he was always going to be your friend. He was a great athletic too. He is going to be deeply missed. Hugs to all of you, Suzie Shewmaker Beaty

“ To Larry's family and friends: I am deeply saddened at this loss. Buddy was a friend and classmate from grade school thru high school. Well remembered for the great football and baseball achievements when the KUHS class of '63 ruled! RIP, my friend.
