

Laura Frances Wooden

August 5, 1929 - April 8, 2010

Laura Frances "Fran" Wooden, 80, of Washougal, WA, has moved to a much better life, after living with Alzheimer's disease for over nine years. She was born in Houston, TX on August 5, 1929. Fran lived in Vancouver since 1974, when she moved with her family from Pittsburgh, PA when her husband, Don, was transferred from the Alcoa office to the Vancouver Alcoa Plant. Fran had a busy life in Vancouver, she was active with the First Christian Church, Manager of the Share House, and her own business, Fran's Flowers. Her hobbies included singing with the Songspinnners and church choir, boating with the Vancouver Yacht Club and the Christmas Ships, gardening, travel, and bridge. "She will be missed by her family and her many friends in the Vancouver area." Fran and Don had four children: daughter, Terry Doland of New Jersey; daughter, Brenda Hatcher of Olympia, WA with her husband, Steve; daughter, Sondra Wooden (deceased); son, Doug Wooden of Ridgefield, WA with his wife, Sherri; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.
