

Lawrence Eugene Gray

November 11, 1922 - November 17, 2014

LAWRENCE EUGENE GRAY November 11, 1922 ~ November 17, 2014 Born in 1922 to Conrad and Tompka Ann Gray in Douglas, Washington. After a short time at W.S.U, he moved into the automotive and fork lift industry as a mechanic, shop foreman, service manager and preceded to build a family. He could fix anything mechanical and was an accomplished welder, fisherman and hunter in his earlier years. Lawrence was preceded in death by his wife, Annetta Gray; but is survived by daughters: Laurel Glasgow (Gary), Sheila Saunders (Don); sons: Brad Gray and Jesse Gray (Kathy); several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Although he had many friends and neighbors that loved him, he never outlived his friends as he was always making new ones. Dad was the guy that always waved hello to everyone. He will be missed. Per his request, just a simple graveside service will occur and any donations/contributions should be made to the Ray Hickey Hospice House in Vancouver, WA that provided such wonderful care in his last days. Please sign his Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:43 PM

PM

“ I am very sad for your loss; Mr. Gray was so giving and loving, and he lived a long full life. He will truly be missed.

Penny Myers - November 21, 2014 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ I am sorry I was unable to attend the graveside service. I loved and respected Lawrence's company for many years. I will miss his presence very much. Earle Minor

Earle Minor - November 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM

BW

“ We send our deepest condolences for the loss of your wonderful and loving dad. We wish we could be there today! Love you

Brenda n Carl Whitlock - November 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM