

Leatha Irene Jull

August 3, 1946 - September 23, 2019

Leatha Irene Jull, (73 y/o) known to her friends as L.J. from Vancouver, Washington passed away peacefully in her home on Monday, September 23rd, 2019 after a battle with cancer.

Born on August 3rd, 1946 in Portland, Oregon to Arthur Green and Evelyn Green (Yoest). She was the youngest of 4 siblings: Bill Green, Martha Jefferson and Bertha Cripps. The family started in a humble farmhouse and eventually moved into the city to the Hawthorne District where Leatha went to Washington High School and worked for I. Magnin.

She later moved to Vancouver, Washington with her husband and started her family. After their divorce, with 2 sons and working full time, she attended courses at Clark College night school pursuing computers and business. She was a hard worker and always explored technology, largely due to her deaf parents use of technology throughout her childhood. She dedicated her talents and passion with Cadet Manufactory and Gutterman's Supply for many decades.

With homes and friends in Vancouver, Washington and Arizona City, Arizona, she loved travel, football, playing softball, and dancing. She was known for her generosity and mentoring and was actively involved with charities close to her heart: Doernbecher Children's Hospital, Shriners Hospital for Children, the Lyon's Club, Big Sisters of America, and the Women of the Moose.

Previously married to lifelong friend Ken Jull, she also is survived by her two sons Kurt Jull and Erick Jull, oldest sister Martha Jefferson of Bodfish, California, many nieces, nephews and cousins, and longtime friends Barb Blevins, Cindy Nelson, Leroy Nelson and Jackie Vernholm.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Warehouse23 (formerly "The Quay" in Vancouver) on Sunday, November 3rd at 2pm.
