

Lelia Marie Codi

October 30, 1925 - July 10, 2010

Lelia Marie Codi died peacefully at her home Saturday evening July 10, 2010. She was born in Vancouver, WA to Lilia (McKay) and Harold Milton Harlan on October 30, 1925. She graduated from Vancouver High School and has been a long time Vancouver resident. Attended Washington State University with an emphasis in art classes. Lelia worked for Kaiser Steel welding ships during WW II. Then married John Codi on June 14, 1958 and raised a son, Ronald J. Codi. She spent more than 30 years working for Kaiser Medical in records and group planning. She was an avid gardener (especially roses), pieced quilts, love attending sporting events of grandchildren, enjoyed cooking and baking, holidays were always special as she decorated the house and prepared family recipes. She was preceded her in death by her husband, John; son, Ron; and brother, Warren (Jim) Harlan. Lelia is survived by her brother, Harold "Mit" Harlan; grandson and granddaughter, Ryan and Samantha Codi; and daughter-in-law, Linda Codi.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 06:38 PM