

Lester Hogan

September 10, 1935 - October 18, 2018

Lester Hogan, age 83, passed away on October 18th, 2018 in his home in Vancouver, Washington.

Lester was born September 10th, 1935 in Muscatine, Iowa to James and Lydia Hogan. Lester had five other brothers' and three sisters. He grew up with the nickname (Budge) because he wouldn't budge an inch, and if he was going to do something he did it. Lester was a twin and the youngest of the family.

Lester met his soon so be wife, Donna in 1953 at the Old Castle Theater in downtown Vancouver. On June 24th, 1955 they were married. Shortly after they had two daughters, Cheryl Lynn and Sandra Diane.

After the girls graduated from high school and eventually got married, Lester and Donna enjoyed trips on their motorcycle and staying down south at Desert Hot Springs in California for the winter months. Lester and Donna spent 59 wonderful years together.

Lester loved to camp, fish, hunt and travel with his family. Lester was a talented person, always working with his hands, be it fence building, leather work, manufacturing, or creating gifts for his beloved wife and family. He valued a job well done and took pride in any work he did. He was a kind person whom will be ever missed by his family, and al that knew him.

He is preceded in passing by: His wife, Donna; daughter, Cheryl; His Dad and Mother and many brothers and sisters.

He is survived by: His daughter, Sandi (Jeff); brother, Kenny (Jenny); grandsons, Brian, Michael, Charlie and seven great-grandkids.
