“ Our deepest sympathy to Angie and Doug and all those who will deeply miss Jeanne. She was a treasure, a shining jewel, a gracious angel in a sometimes hard and cold world. She will be sorely missed and tenderly remembered by many. She always had a smile on her face and a welcome in her heart. She deserves heaven. We loved her very much.

“ I remember Jeanne's bright warm welcoming smile. She always welcomed a chat and was generous with her humor and her laughter. I always loved Angie and my trip to visit her when she and Chuck moved to Idaho for a while. Jeanne was always a gracious hostess and great with the kids. She will be missed. Love to the family, Carol

“ Jeanne was my "Angel Aunt", so very special to me throughout my life. So like her Angel Mother. I'm so glad we were in constant contact this last year. An unexpected, devastating loss; but the memories are many of a beautiful, loving person.

“ Jeanne was the sister that I never had, she was the one person that you could always depend on. When Ray (my late husband & her brother) introduced us we just clicked. We had so much in common and really welcomed me into the Sansouci family. My thoughts go out to Angi & Doug and the grandchildren she will be truly missed.
