“ Linda was briefly my Supervisor during the time when Walter was born. She was so incredibly enamored with him and the life of being his Grandmother. ❤️ Whenever she'd come to the office, I'd ask her if she had any new photos of him, and she would just beam with love and pride as she pulled her tablet out to show me his latest antics. Please accept my condolences on the loss of her precious life. Julie Seaberg

“ When I think of Linda, a few things spring to mind. First, at work, she was put in a difficult position of managing change with a lot of change-challenged people. It was necessary, but not easy. Yet she handled it so well, like a true leader, and kept a positive attitude in the midst of challenging behaviors (because, it was about doing the right thing for the Customer). Second, she would sometimes join us in the Portland office. Each time, her entry would be met with so many of us happy to see her. She gave great hugs and genuinely made all of our days better by her mere presence. Mostly what I think of when I think of Linda is how she cherished her role as a Mother and Grandmother. There is a little fella named Walter who has no idea who I am, but because of Linda sharing pictures and video of his sweet self, I have seen him grow. Linda will be missed deeply. My condolences to her family - she spoke so highly of you!!! Brent

“ Linda was a wonderful person. We went out dancing. This is us at an Andy Stokes concert at the Ilani Muze. I saw her a few weeks ago and her smile was genuine and her eyes smiled along with her mouth. I will miss you Linda! God Bless you!!!!
