“ My first memory of you is when your mom brought you home from the hospital after your birth. I can still see you as that tiny baby. There are many memories of you as you grew up. A very special memory is of our last conversation and the big goodbye kiss I got from you. You will always be in my heart, Linda. I hope you and your mom are having a wonderful, pain-free time together in Heaven.

“ Memories, I have three distinct ones. When you and the boys were small, your mom would hire me to babysit you. Thirty years later you and Tom visited us in the northern jungle of Guatemala, hoping to return home with a newborn. You won the jackpot by adopting Myra and Mario. The icing on the cake was when you opened your home in Yacolt to start an annual family and friends get-together. What a great time that was, but even good times come to an end and goodbyes are only too soon. Thank you, Linda for the love and kindness you have shown to me as your uncle. Que te vaya bien.
