

Lindsey Mae Maxwell

November 11, 2000 - August 19, 2010

Lindsey Mae Maxwell died on Aug. 19, 2010 at Emanuel Children's Hospital in Portland, OR from complications after heart surgery. She was a Vancouver, WA resident and a student at Lakeshore Elementary School. Lindsey's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by her understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives. Although Lindsey's illness made her appear frail, she possessed strength, perseverance, and an ability to overcome incredible odds and physical challenges. Her courage taught us that each day is a blessing and an opportunity to create lasting memories. Lindsey loved doing anything artistic, especially coloring. She had an amazing imagination and was often found making up stories with her toys. She loved music and her lively singing voice spread throughout the house. Lindsey's infectious giggle could light up any room. Lindsey's engaging and loving spirit could melt the hearts of those around her. With Lindsey's passing we remind others that her life is one to be celebrated. We will miss Lindsey every day, especially her winning smile, but she will forever remain in our hearts. It has been a privilege to be her family. Lindsey is survived by her mother, Kim Maxwell; and brother, Logan (7); father, Cory Maxwell; step-mother, Jody Maxwell; and brothers, Francisco (12) and Wyatt (4). Lindsey also is survived by her maternal grandparents, Mary and Tom Dearey; her paternal grandparents, Virginia and Wayne Maxwell; and by numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. Lindsey will be missed dearly by all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:59 PM