“ Lisa and Tim were great neighbors to me. They have both taken special care to look after me with my disability needs. The friendship they have shared with Maxxy and Miragle has meant the world to us. I will miss her terribly but glad she is in heaven and no longer suffering. Maxxy, Miragle and me send hugs and love to Tim and all her children & grandchildren

“ Dang it, dang it, dang it! I love u mama and miss u 😭 it's still hard to believe ur gone. I can't believe the sickness got u so fast. Its so weird that ur not just a phone call away anymore and a short drive away anymore. U did good in life mama and I will always be so grateful that u raised me and for everything u have ever done for me when I was sick. I always promised I'd be there for u and dad till the end and I am so glad I was there for u and still I'm here for dad. I'll carry u in my heart and soul forever and will always love u. I don't think I'll ever understand why God gave u that illness and let it take ur life but I do know it's not fair or right that it happened to u. I'll always love u and miss u 💔 I hope heaven or afterlife is everything great that we ever imagined it would be. Xoxoxo 🤔

“ I was fortunate to become aunt to Lisa when she was about 3 years old. She was the new addition to the family that first Christmas and she was sparkly and sweet and adorable.
I am so sad that I won't get another call from her.
Please accept my condolences for your great loss.
