

Lloyd Harrison Warner

January 4, 1923 - May 10, 2018

LLOYD HARRISON WARNER January 4, 1923 ~ May 10, 2018 Lloyd Harrison Warner, age 95, passed away on May 10th, 2018 in Vancouver, WA. Born on January 4th, 1923, in Nelson, British Columbia, Lloyd was the youngest of three children born to Harry and Margaret Warner. The family relocated to Spokane and then settled in Yakima, WA, where Lloyd graduated from Yakima High School. Lloyd joined the Army and served in Europe during World War II, earning the Purple Heart. Upon his honorable discharge from the service, he enrolled in the University of Washington and graduated with Bachelor of Science. Lloyd was employed by the United States Forest Service for many years, and retired in 1977. He enjoyed reading, yard work, and volunteered for many years at Share House. He helped build the current Glenwood Church facility. Lloyd is survived by Kay, his wife of 70 years; daughters, Carol (David) Kelley and Beth (Randy) Grambo; son, Ross Warner; sister, Edris Clark; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. A Celebration of Life will be held at 12 noon on Tues., June 19th at Glenwood Community Church, 12201 NE 72nd Ave., Vancouver, WA 98686. Memorial donations may be made in Lloyd's name to Glenwood Community Church Missions Fund, 12201 NE 72nd Ave., Vancouver, WA 98686.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the fond memories of your loved family member. The Bible also offers words of comfort during times of bereavement. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 states "God will comfort us in all our trials."

K Adams - June 09, 2018 at 12:00 AM