“ I met Lola once and was so impressed by her mental awareness and her love of God and family. Visiting with her I would not have guessed her age because in spite of not being able to move about much she was busy writing poetry, reading her Bible, and watching programs about the Lord on her television. I know she will be missed by her family and friends. Russell, Rhonda, Sandra and family may God give you peace, comfort, and many glorious memories of Lola today and in the future. Our prayers go up for you.
