

London Dane Stoll

April 24, 1996 - August 16, 2014

London Dane Stoll (L-cat/Lala), was one of the most inspiring, up-beat, genuine, optimistic, and amazing people you could ever have had the honor of knowing. His life was taken far too soon at the age of 18. He had a talent unlike any other and a heart that never ran out of love. His future was bright because he always reached for the stars. His ability to make everyone feel like he was their best friend is a quality most will remember about him. He was a son, a brother, a cousin and a friend and will be truly missed by many.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:33 PM

LR

“ London (as well as his sister) was one of my students at school. He was thoughtful, respectful and kind-hearted, and boy, did he love to skateboard! His family has been in my prayers during this time and I'm sure they will need continued prayers as time goes on. In the meantime, I will always remember London's beautiful smile that he freely shared with the world!

Leslie Robb - August 26, 2014 at 12:00 AM

JG

“ Dear Mark and family, I am so sorry for your loss of London. Mark, you being the proud papa was just in showing me pictures of him and siblings. I can't imagine what you must be going through. My thoughts are with you. He was a wonderful person I'm sure. My greatest sympathy, Jackie Gardner

Jackie Gardner - August 25, 2014 at 12:00 AM

PS

“ We never got to meet up in person buddy. You have been an awesome Facebook friend. Thanks for introducing me to Yew Skateboards and for all the chill footy you and Marcus posted. And thanks for all the awesome convos! Shred in heaven my friend. I will remember you always and your memory will bring a smile to my face. Much love and deepest condolences to your family and friends.

Peter Shanaghan - August 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM