

Lorraine D. Kadow

March 27, 1923 - February 25, 2014

LORRAINE D. KADOW March 27, 1923 ~ February 25, 2014 Lorraine Kadow, 90, passed away on Feb. 25, 2014 in Vancouver, WA. She came into the world on March 27, 1923 to Mildred Lela Bumpus and George Henry Rader at her Grandma Annie Belle Bumpus' house in Genesee, ID. She graduated from Vancouver High School and then worked as a secretary in CPA offices. Lorraine married her "special man", Kenneth Bryce Kadow, and were married 52 years until his death in 2003. She loved golfing, crocheting, knitting, needlepoint, gardening, baking, playing pinochle, and sewing. She was a member at Orchards Hill Golf Course in Washougal, WA for 20 years and once made a hole-in-one at the Cedar Hill Golf Course. Above all, Lorraine loved her family, especially being a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother. She said she "never saw a baby I couldn't love." Lorraine is survived by her sons, Robert (Alice) Kadow and Gary (Kathy) Kadow; daughters, Kathy Cole and Nancy (Ken) Harding; sisters, Joyce Doering and Jeanne Coldwell; brother, Bill Coldwell; 11 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. The family would like to thank Community Home Health Hospice for the kind, empathetic help they provided. A celebration of her life will be on Tues., March 4 at 12:30 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. -
