

Lyle Dennis Seekins

December 13, 1939 - December 2, 2014

Lyle Seekins was born December 13, 1939, in Vancouver, WA. He spent most of his childhood on the family farm on Prune Hill in Camas. In 1962 he married Carol Lundstrom and they moved to Brush Prairie with their family. He passed away peacefully December 2, 2014, just one day after their 52nd wedding anniversary. Lyle loved life, his family and friends and enjoyed every day to the fullest, but faced his struggle with cancer with grace and courage. He is survived by his wife, Carol, son Kevin, daughters Tamara Farr (husband Ken Burger), Leanne (Jeff) Reid, brother Tim (Pam) and sister Janelle (Richard) Cummins. He loved his grandchildren, Amanda (Josh) Maplethorpe, Jordan and Clayton Farr, Jared Burger; Alex, Katrin and Madison Langer, Cassidy Reid; Samantha and Colin Seekins and his first great-daughter Hailey Maplethorpe. He was preceded in death by his parents, Vernon and Helen (Zorn) Seekins, sister Joan Benjamin, and nephew Shane Marsh. In addition to the immediate family he leaves behind a very large and greatly loved extended family. Lyle loved farming and raised beef cattle for many years. In his youth he was a motorcycle rider and even rode bucking broncs, but in farming and raising his family he found his true calling. Many of the young people hired to help with farming or haying became like family and continued to be a part of our lives. Our thanks to these friends and Kaiser Hospice for helping us through the difficult times and sharing the joys and laughter of life. Although he will be missed, we know he is now in heaven and we will see him again.
