She enjoyed many years of fishing with family on the McKenzie River and Silver Lake. She enjoyed Fox News and political discussions. She had an appreciation for the finer things in life and strived for the best. She was a phenomenal cook and was never afraid to try a new recipe. In her more recent years, she truly enjoyed her beautiful garden and home, which should have been featured in the magazine Home and Garden. She enjoyed spending the last few months of her life appreciating the spectacular view from the balcony while sharing it with friends and family. In closing, Maciana, upon her death was surrounded by her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephews Tim and Mike along with their family, and with her closest of friends. Rest in peace grandma, we will always love and miss you.

“ The Hannah and Dougherty families truly enjoyed having Maciana as a part of their lives. Amongst other things we remember her Christmas bread and her warm and wonderful accent. She was a big help to us all over the years, a true joy to have known her.
