“ First time i met magic was cleaning my oldsmobile outside my house when magic pulled up an asked if it was for sale and i said no, immediatley i could tell he was da homie so i asked if he smoked an he said yes so we got together and smoked a blunt later that nite. After that it was like we had been friends for years, He only lived around the corner so we satarting hanging out more an i showed him the seattle area an my friends were his friends my family was his and vice versa. Eventually after a few trips back an forth between vancouver i met his father G who inspired me an had alot of knowledge to absorb. Only knowing majestic 2 weeks i was kicked out of my house with no were to go an magic said barely knowing me "you can come stay at my house. Majestic was a true friend a one of a kind person who would try an help anybody when they needed it. Last time me an majestic seen each other was the superbowl of 07 when i picked him up from his house an we kicked it an he spent the nite. If i knew that i would not have seen him again i would have definetly got in my car an drove straight to his crib. {REST IN PARADISE} Majestic Snow-Much Love G u kno wat it is, if it makes any diffrence i am sorry for what happened an wish i could change it ,hope the best for all majestic's family...

“ To the family of majestic, I just want you to know how much I'm sorry for your loss of your wonderful son. Majestic was a great person and was going to be the best daddy ever! I was so proud of him when his baby boy was born, he tried so hard to be a good daddy, that just shows how well you raised him. I want Jaiden to grow up to know how much of a great and kind man he was! I will miss him for ever and always. Grandma Janie
