

Marcia Kay Myers

October 16, 1945 - November 18, 2015

MARCIA KAY MYERS October 16, 1945 ~ November 18, 2015 Marcia Kay Myers passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 18, 2015 at the young age of 70. She was born in Pasco, WA on Oct. 16, 1945 and graduated from Pasco High School in 1963. Marcia's passions were writing, self-publishing, gardening, entertaining, home wine making and any other activity that used her vast creative talents and allowed her time to be with the people she loved and could entertain. She was a dedicated member of the Pasco High "Bulldog" Alumni, former choir member of the Sebastopol Community Church, loyal friend and best friend to her dear cousin, Sharon Ferrians. Marcia is survived by her two sons and daughters-in-law, Scott and Anita Safford of MT and Grant and Dorri Safford of CA; grandson, Brice Safford of CA; sister, Sally Merriman of WA; and step-sister, Gretchen Welther of CA. Marcia was preceded in death by her parents, Cecil Myers and Hazel Kirkham; beloved step-mother, Katherine VanDissel; and brother, Cecil "Jerry" Myers. A memorial service to celebrate Marcia, will be held at 12:30p.m. on Dec. 12, 2015 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave., Vancouver, WA with private interment at Mountain View Cemetery, Walla Walla, WA. The family wishes to thank Marcia's "angels" and close friends, Suzie Johnson, Sydney Reisbick, Pat Hogan, Maggie Vinnedge and Janet Hove for all of their love and friendship during her illness. “ Marcia and I have known each other for 63 years and are from the PHS class of 63. After going our separate ways after high school, we saw each other at reunions, then reacquainted when she moved to Vancouver many years ago. We had a lot in common, especially our interest in gardening. I will miss you old friend.
