

Marcielle Macy Zoller

December 30, 1926 - July 27, 2019

Marcielle lived a rich and active life to the age of 92. She was born and raised in Ridgefield, WA, by Ole and Nancy Anderson as one of eight children. She took pride in being a Ridgefield Spudette and graduated from Ridgefield High School. Marcielle was a member of the Nazarene church. She married Merle Adams and lived in Portland, OR, for some time. In 1957, she was blessed with her only child, Susan Adams. In 1964, she moved to Vancouver, WA, where she lived for 55 years. Marcy became widowed in the late 70's but found love again, marrying James Zoller. Her occupations included Bank Specialist and Secretary. Her passions included family and friends, traveling, gardening, bowling and Northwest professional sports.

Marcielle is preceded in death by parents, Ole and Nancy Anderson, siblings, Eleanor Roberts, Melvin, Howard, Walter, Gordon and Vern Anderson, and daughter Susan Adams.

She is survived by sibling Judy Anderson and grandson Erick Blair along with many nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

PG

“ I grew up down the road. And with Sue as my childhood friend. I spent many hours with Marci and Sue as a kid. My parents bowled with Marci and Jim and had fun times. I will remember Marci and Susan. RIP you two. Love you from the Neigherbor ❤️ The Gibbons

Peny Gibbons - August 03, 2019 at 12:00 AM