

Margaret Mary Amy

November 14, 1930 - August 21, 2014

Margaret "Peggy" Amy, 83, passed away on August 21, 2014 in Vancouver, Washington. Peggy is survived by her children Ron, David, Kathy and Diane, son-in-laws Pat and Ramon, 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Peggy was born on November 14, 1930 in Omaha, Nebraska to Norman and Henrietta Walde. She married Robert Amy in 1949 and moved to Portland, Oregon a few years later. Peggy loved visiting the Oregon coast and while raising her children she encouraged this love of nature during their many family road trips to Omaha. From a young age, she had strong faith in a heavenly creator and in 1944 became one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Throughout her life she firmly believed the words of Psalm 37:29 "The righteous will possess the earth, And they will live forever on it." All are welcome to attend the memorial and celebrate Peggy's life.
