“ I have many special memories of Margaret-her daughter Marilyn and I grew up as best of friends and went many places together with Glen and Margaret. Margaret was a caring person and loved her family and friends. She was like a second mom to me growing up in the country; we continued this friendship into the later years at Manor Church where she enjoyed the fellowship of worship and praise to our Heavenly Father. I will continue to pray for all of the family and may you all feel God's precious love and peace as you go through this time of loss. Sincerely, Maryhelen Hilmer Mann
