“ I am so sorry to hear about Margie's passing. I knew her since I was a little girl.

When I grew up she baby sat my three children when they were babies. Ilost touch in there later years but I still thought of her often. She was a good friend. I will miss you Margie and see you on the other side.

“ I remember the first time I met Margie and Lyle. It was in 1991 and my husband and I had just started dating. He told me he wanted me to meet some very special friends and he took me to their RV (they were in the process of building their home). Margie made me feel comfortable as soon as we met as did Lyle. A few years later, we went on a cruise with them and had the best time. More memories were made throughout the years, and I will always treasure them. Margie was full of spirit and spunk and if she loved you, you knew it. I will miss Margie, but know she is in Heaven with God and Lyle. My thoughts are with her family.

“ Margie was a wonderful person, mother, and friend. I knew her since I was very young. She babysat me and changed my diapers. Later in my life I worked at the Richart family business for many years where I came to know and respect her even more, and she was a major part of my and my family's life. The last 15 or so years our paths went different directions and I didn't see much of her, but that didn't mean she was far from my thoughts. I loved her as if she was my own mother. I'm sure she had many "children" that thought of her that way. Sadly, I won't be able to attend her funeral due to family issues, but I will be there in heart and soul, and I know I will see her in Heaven.
She will be Greatly missed!

“ Mom was Born on July 20, 1928 in Nuremburg, Germany and had three sisters. She was raised by a single mother, was 10 when WWII started, and survive the Nuremburg bombings. She met my dad Lyle in the early 1950s when he was a GI during the post war occupation. They were married in 1952 and she left Germany to raise my two brother and I in Vancouver, WA. She only return to Germany a few times to see her homeland and family, the last being with my wife and I in 2018. I treasure that trip, where I learned first hand of the hardships she endured as a child, the turmoil she faced as an immigrant coming to a new country, the culture shock of living in a foreign country, and the surprise of being introduced to a new family. She was married to Lyle until we lost him in 1998, and has lived alone ever since. I admire her ability to adapt and endure the difficulties that life presents. I loved her very much and I strive to replicate her qualities into my life. I will miss her dearly.
