“ My deepest sympathy to the Eversaul family. I loved Marie she was so happy all the time. She was my favorite one as a young girl that Lois introduced me to. As I got to know the family I found she was a very kind and loving person. I hope she has a short journey to her destination with the Lord. God Bless.

“ My condolences to Marie's family. My mother, Josephine Walker was a friend of Marie and her sister Minerva from her days at the School for the Deaf. I have fond memories of the Deaf Club meetings. Marie was a very sweet lady.
