“ Dear Mann family. I am so very sorry to read of the death of Marilyn. Please accept my condolences. I would like to share something that I have found personally found to be comforting. It is found in the Bible at John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:4. These verses tell us that soon God is going to bring about a resurrection of our dear loved ones as well as do away with all causes we have for suffering including sickness and death. Knowing this has always comforted me and it is my hope that these thoughts will comfort you and your family as well.

“ I am incredibly sorry for your loss of Marilyn. May the prayers of others help to bring you strength, comfort, and courage each day! Something that has personally helped me cope with the loss of a loved one is at Isaiah 25:8, God promises to "swallow up death forever" and "will wipe away the tears from all faces", just like a loving parent. May the hope God gives of a brighter future ahead, when death is no more and we are reunited with our loved ones by means of the resurrection, bring you comfort and help carry you through the difficult mourning process in the days ahead! With deep sorrow!
