MARJORIE J. ENGLISH

August 2, 1932 ~ October 11, 2025

Marjorie passed quietly due to natural causes on Oct. 11, 2025, at age 93.

Marjorie is lovingly remembered by her three children, Gary (Karen), Russell, and Mark; granddaughter, Abby (Kyle) Trench; and great-granddaughters, Maxine and Sloane. Her grandson, Forrest, passed away far too soon, in July 2025.

She had a colorful, joyous life, filled with friends, loved to travel, and lived almost her entire life in Walnut Grove, very near her childhood home, 'the chicken house' they lived in (with chickens living under the house) while her father built a great home next door. As a teen, she won first prize for a cherry pie (baked on a wood stove), rode horses in the fields before Green Meadows Golf Course was built and lived across the street until passing.

Dad always said she was 'the one' from the moment they met! She worked at JC Penney after her children moved on, and made countless friends through many activities. She walked part of the original Oregon Trail, swam laps at Memory Pool, hiked part of the Pacific Crest Trail with family and a dog (that kept growling at invisible things).

She was a co-leader at the famous Fort Vancouver Tapestry project (<https://www.fortvancouvertapestry.com/tapestry.php>), 108 feet long! And, an honorary member of the Evergreen Airport Bums, was a semi pro cake decorator, and, at her passing, she was still answering Jeopardy questions at age 93.

She would like to offer thanks to the MANY family and friends she shared her life with and wished you all the best!
