Mark Warren Hall, age 72, passed away peacefully on Tues, Dec. 17, 2024. He battled through multiple difficult health issues. Through it all he always retained his witty sense of humor.

Mark was born June 19, 1952, to Larry and Cleo Hall in Vancouver, WA. He graduated from Hudson Bay High School in 1970. Mark earned his BA in accounting from the University of Washington, Seattle in 1974. He earned his CPA, moved back to Vancouver and became a partner in the accounting firm of Vanderwal, Frumentti, Lander and Hall.

Following the CPA firm, Mark worked in property development. He later moved into property management and retired in 2014 as a partner in Key Property Services, Inc.

Mark married the love of his life Terri in 1984 and celebrated 40 years of marriage on May 5, 2024. Most of all he loved being a dad to son Matt. He was a very active guy and loved to play golf, snow ski and travel. Mark, Terri and son Matt often traveled together to golf and ski destinations. The family joined Royal Oaks Country Club in 2001, a place Mark grew up playing golf with his dad. Grandson Lonnie was born Jan. 2024 and was a most special gift to Mark during his last days.

Mark is preceded in death by his mother Cleo and father Larry. He is survived by his wife Terri, son Matt (Genevieve), grandson Lonnie, brothers Scott and Greg (Somala), cousin Pam (Greg) and numerous extended family.
