“ I met Mark about a year ago and he was a very loyal friend to me and my son. Mark was a very caring and giving person, he was always there to listen, help, or just be a friend to me during some of the hardest times of my life. I am heart broken to have lost such a wonderful man & dear friend. He will truly be missed.

“ Mark was a unique individual, one of a thousand true railroaders that made up the core the Union Pacific used to call "Family." I am proud to say that I knew him and could call Mark a friend of mine. Our generation of railroaders made a lasting memory, and Mark was one of those that will forever be remembered.

“ To Mark's family and friends, please accept my condolences . This was such a shock to us here in Hinkle and I will miss his presence that he brought to us. I didn't buy his "exterior" and he knew it. I would catch him giving me that half grin knowing full well I didn't . I didn't blow his cover though. But I was able to raz him and get away with it where others couldn't . May God grant you peace and understanding.
