

Mark Howard Henry

March 12, 1977 - April 9, 2023

Mark Howard Henry, age 46, of Vancouver, died Sunday, April 9, 2023, at his home in Vancouver Washington.

Mark was the son of Janet Foust of Rupert, Idaho.

Mark attended elementary school in Rock Springs Wyoming and high school in Boise, Idaho. Mark loved to go fishing and camping, enjoyed animals, was an avid computer gamer. He enjoyed watching pro football and basketball and loved to celebrate the Holidays with his wife.

Mark met his soul mate, LeRae Kendall, while working at Hewlett Packard.

They were married on May 23, 1998 in Vancouver Washington. Mark was a loving father to their many four legged babies throughout their marriage. He became disabled in 2003 after a severe car accident and then his joy in life was being a wonderful house husband for LeRae. Mark started to become ill in 2019 and then passed on Easter Sunday 2023.

Mark is survived by his wife, LeRae Henry and his mother Janet Henry.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother; Virginia Foust

The gravesite service will be held on Tuesday, May 23, at 2pm. Service to be located at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, located at, 1101 NE 112th Avenue, Vancouver Washington.

To support the family in place of flowers, money to help with the expenses would be appreciated.

The family would like to give a special thanks to ControlTek, LeRae's employer, for all the support they have been to her through Mark's illness.
