“ I just learned of this today 6/18/21, I used to run with 5 of the greatest friends you could have at the age of 15, Frank, Rommy, Dave, and Brian Hermansen, Mark's younger brother. Mark was a year older than us and was driving his hot rod, and didn't have time for us adolescence then. But at Main St. Park we bonded through playing basketball of whom some of those guy then I am still friends with. Mark and I lived for hoops, sometimes we would get out and play at night at a close by school with his brother Brian. Decades later at my first Esco Picnic around '93 I was walking around and surprisingly spotted him shooting some hoops. I stated what a small world. Once again we were playing like old times. Later I found him at Esco where we were fellow Escoites. We had countless conversations, jam sessions, and got to meet his family we loved to share conversations whenever we could get together. We shared life's high's and lows. After Esco's closing we would text occasionally. But distance and time drifted us apart. I always admired him, he reminded me of Freddy Mercury with his sculptured hair and his statured posture. He made time for his friends and kept a positive outlook on life. He helped me through my beginnings of my sobriety. Who would of thought a basketball could start such a longlisting friendship of 42 years, I rarely find friends like Mark in life. He was one of a kind, I loved encouraging him to play his guitar. Making music together was very enjoyable with him. I am very sad to just learn of this, he was such a strong hearted, good willed friend. I will miss him dearly as a friend , coworker, bandmate, and mentor. My heart goes out to his family. This must be much rougher on them than I. Much love and prayers to you all. In many ways he was like a brother.

“ Funny, Humble, Intelligent, Kind, Thoughtful those are a few words that come to my mind when I think of Mark. He for sure was one of those guys that made the world a better place simply because he was in it. #supersizeloss #foreverinourhearts

“ I worked with Mark for over 20 years. I always enjoyed our conversations. The chair he sat in in the lunch room has been empty since he has passed. I will miss my friend.
