“ Dear Cindy and family, I was going through pictures and came accross a few of Mark. I have been thinking of him today! In the fifth grade Mark and I as they say in grade school went together. :)! Too funny he was my first boyfriend. I will never forget him and we always laughed about it even when we were in high school because we were not a match, just very good friends. Karyn Minor and I are very dear friends and we played a lot of nighttime games together. He was a very gentle soul and I wanted to let you all know I'm thinking of him! He is in heaven with both my parents and sister. God bless all!

“ Thinking of you today, Mark. Happy Birthday! I think of you often, and still miss you terribly! It is not the same without you here at work. The Bamboo plant I bought you is in our fishbowl conference room, and is growing so tall. It makes me smile and think of you every time I see it. You are loved, and not forgotten! Happy Birthday, my friend! Tammy

“ It is hard to believe a year has gone by since we lost such a dear and sweet person. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and children knowing that they will always have that empty space inside for Mark. May your warm and loving memories of Mark get you through the difficult times and know that Mark touched a lot of lives during his short stay with us. God Bless you all. Much love ~ Sandi

“ It's been a year today that our beloved Mark passed away. It seems so long ago, but at the same time, it seems like just yesterday. I know today will be difficult for all of you, in much deeper of a way than it is for us here at North Coast. There is a heaviness in my heart today, missing him and thinking of the hole his absence has left this past year. Yes, we have gone forward in our lives and everyday business, but not with out the aching loss of his presence. Each passing day God has made it a little easier, but the waves crash into me again when I allow myself to stop and really think about him, as I am sure they do you, on a much grander scale. My prayers go out for each of you as you go through your day today. I pray for God's healing peace, for His strength and for His comfort for you even moreso today, that each breath, each thought, be strengthening and healing and that today is a day of beautiful memories of the man Mark was. May you feel God's consoling arms wrapped around you . My love and prayers go out to each of you.

“ It's been almost a year since Mark left us all. His memory and impact in our lives hasn't faded, and never will. I just wanted you to know that I continue to think of him. I miss his incredible joy for life, his compassion and humor, and his intelligence and abilities. He was never too busy to help, never too busy for a smile or an encouraging word. He was the one person I knew I could always count on to help me with problems that arose here at work. I know he just had a birthday on January 12th, and that had to have been incredibly difficult for each of you, especially after the holidays where I know his absence was most definitely felt by each of you. I have been praying for you this past year and even more so through the very difficult "1st's" that have come. I've been praying specifically for each of you as April 20th approaches ever closer. I know it will be difficult for us that consider him a friend, but it will be much more difficult for each of you. Please know that I am praying for God to make April 20th a day of remembering the incredible love Mark had for each of you, a day of celebration of the man he was and the incredible impact he made on so many that had the privilege of spending time with him, and that God make it a day without the aching pain of loss. May it comfort you to know that we love Mark, we still think of him often, and we miss him. Because of this, it makes it even more heartfelt as we reach out to God for you with our prayers for comfort, peace and joy. that each time you think of Mark, that you feel the love he had for each of you, the incredible joy of life he held, the ever present smile and laughter that so easily came, and the immense compassion he showed to those around him. Mark was a wonderful man, whom we miss him dearly and hold the highest respect and admiration for. With love & prayers to you all, Tammy

“ It was such a shock to hear just today that Mark is no longer with us. I worked with him off and on since taking a buyer job at Tokyo Electron in 2003. What a beautiful person he was - always positive and helpful. He will be greatly missed. Blessings, peace and strength to all who knew and loved him.

“ I am at a loss for words.... I grew up with Mark from 4th grade through high school. I was the other red headed girl next to Karyn Minor :) ... Mike Bills, Chuck Mitchel, Audrey Dewsnap, Leslie Siebel, Shelley Stewart, Brian Harris, Greg Fisher, Tiger Cohen, Rod anderson and yes Mark ...We were the gang of Chehalem elementary..I cant express enough what a fabulous man he was and as I am writing this it seems so very surreal....Cindy may you and your children know how much he was loved through out his life..We all played kick the can, spin the bottle, tee peed houses and had a blast doing it. My memories of Mark go on and on. May you all find joy in the memories of our dear Mark and you find warmth, strength and guidance from above... Much love and respect, Kathleen A. Newhardt

“ I knew Mark for nearly 25 years since I started at CED in portland in 1986. Mark was our trusted inside sales person who knew how to get things done with Allen-Bradley (Rockwell). Mark was THE best at working the system and shielding the customer from all the challenges and frustrations of working with a large vendor. This is the character that made him such a valuable team member then and to his last day at North Coast Electric. While I never developed a close personal relationship with Mark, I always admired him for his character and skill. I will miss Mark's easy going attitude and ability to "get it done" when the pressure was on. It was allways so easy to talk to him. While every one of us has our own internal challenges, it's clear now that Mark was unable to manage his. I only hope that he has found the peace he was unable to find in life. Bruce

“ Dearest Mark; Although we never met face to face we spoke almost daily about more than business matters. You had a special talent to make my days brighter with your sense of humor and positive attitude during the toughest of times. I am deeply sadden and will miss your voice and cheerful disposition terribly. May you rest in peace my friend.

“ To Mark's Family and friends, especially his daughter.....Your Dad and Son was a great man, and a true friend. My thought's and prayer's go out to you. We called him "Toast" a knickname given him lovingly and endearingly by Coach Lopez. I had the honor and privilege to play on a few teams with him and to call him a friend. The one that sticks out the most, him being from Mt. View, and me Five Oaks, was at the 1st day of practice at Aloha Park in Aloha Pop Warner, Mark was an Intense Player and had eye's with a Mission, we called them Mike Singletary (Bears '85) Eye's. I was so afraid at that age to step on the field with him, as I watched him hit people from his Linebacker Position like a Freight Train!!! It was my blessing to call him a teammate, and friend, and as I got to know him, to learn of his intelligence, and big, kind, caring, and understanding heart, He is one of those type of guys who makes an indelible mark in your life. He will be truly missed. I love you Toast!

“ To Marks sweet wonderful parents; Jo & Arnie, I’m so sorry for your great loss. I never had the opportunity to meet your sweet Mark but I knew of him through your stories that you shared. It was so obvious that Mark was loved dearly by you both and his family. You have wonderful memories of your sweet son and they are engraved in your hearts forever. I pray that you may find peace through this very difficult time until you meet again in heaven. My heart and prayers go out to Marks family, Cindy, Mason and Grace. Bless you all! All my love and Prayers, Nancy McAndrews Beverton Or.

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathy & sincerity to Mark's family in this time of mourning. I have great memories of Mark and I have been reliving those in my head over and over since I heard the news of his passing. I had smiles and tears on my face at the same time today as the memories rushed through my head and also the realization of the current came fore front. May you have strength in this time of remembrance.

“ Cindy, Mason and Grace, There are no words to describe the amount of grief we share with you at the loss of Mark. He was such a wonderful, fun loving guy to be around and we sure enjoyed our visits with him at family get togethers. He will be missed forever more! In scripture it says in (Luke 1:37) "For with God nothing is impossible". and in (2 Cor.5:7)" For we walk by Faith and not by sight." He sustains us when we are unable to do so on our own. Our prayer is that you can hold on tight to that in the days to come. We love you!

“ The loss of Mark has created heartaches that may never entirely heal; but, the blessing is the abundant great memories, because of him, that no one can steal. I feel a better person for his influence in my life in the way he honored his family, cherished his friends and took pride in his work. The light in the world will be a bit dimmer without his glowing smile. I will do my best to give an extra smile each day in his honor and to carry his light.

“ Mark was a very dear friend and will be missed so very much. We need to take a pause in life and remember all the good there is. Each of us have so much effect on the lives of others and it is so important to be thankful. Mark touched me in so many ways and made many of the challenges in life much easier to deal with. He was so positive and supportive and will be missed and remembered forever. I miss you my dear friend, may you rest in peace!
