“ I am so sorry for your loss. It's always difficult to lose a loved one, but it's especially tragic to lose them early in life. I lost someone very dear to me and what brings me comfort during those especially hard days is to realize that death is a temporary enemy (John 5:28,29). So although your time with Marla was cut short, you can have the hope of being reunited with her forever under perfect circumstances here on Earth (Revelation 21:4). In the meantime, even though the pain may at times seem too great to overcome, please know that Jehovah God will give you the strength necessary to endure (Psalm 94:17-19). Please accept my deepest sympathy and sincerest condolences.

“ I am so sorry for your great loss. May the God who "binds up the brokenhearted" and "comforts all who mourn" sustain your family during this challenging time. (Isaiah 61:1, 2 NWT) With heartfelt sympathy, Patrice

“ For my treasured childhood best friend, Marla A ship sails and I stand watching till she fades on the horizon and someone at my side says She is gone Gone where? Gone from my sight, that is all. She is just as large now as when I last saw her. Her diminished size and total loss from my sight is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says she is gone there are others who are watching her coming over their horizon and other voices take up a glad shout There she comes! That is what dying is. An horizon and just the limit of our sight. Lift us up, Oh Lord, that we may see further Bishop Brent
