“ Marlene was married to my cousin Bob Taylor. my father worked construction with Bob. Our families lived next door to each other from 1955 to 1964. I stayed by her side everyday. While she cooked meals. I was with her when she sunbathed to keep a tan. we baled grass from our field, raised animals and lived a country life. She was funny, classy, and a wonderful person who I adored.

“ Warm, kind and loving and a smile that could light the room, that was Marlene, my cousin. Her grace, beauty and loving kindness is something that has awed me since my early childhood. I will miss sharing letters with her, catching up with the family. She will always be in my heart.
