

Marlys Wills Lamfers

August 19, 1927 - February 16, 2010

Marlys W. Lamfers of Vancouver, WA, died on Feb. 16, 2010, in her home, as she wished. She was born in Radcliffe, IA on Aug. 19, 1927 to Vernice and Lester Wills. She moved to Vancouver in 1984 after retiring from Safeway as a bakery clerk in California. Marlys enjoyed going to church and attended many activities with it, including being a Sunday School teacher for the little ones. She loved social outings, and attended many of them through the Senior Center. She also volunteered for Silver Star Elementary School for over 8 years, helping K-3rd grades with one-on-one attention. Marlys was a very special woman who loved spending time with all of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and talked about them all the time. She loved traveling, and going to new places, and would get excited over doing new things. Marlys never met a stranger, and was loved by all. She will be greatly missed in our hearts, and remembered by many. Marlys is survived by her two children, Pam Jackson, and Randy Lamfers; and one sister, JoAnn Sward. She had five grandchildren, Charlie, Stacy, Dan, Lindsay and Cheryl; and eight great-grandchildren, Matt, Jessica, Chris, Nick, Daniel, Emily, Derrick, and Dylan.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:34 PM

“ Its been almost 1 year sence my beloved grandma past we will always love her .

Nicholas Charles Johnson - January 13, 2011 at 12:00 AM