

Marshall Ivey

December 26, 1977 - July 26, 2021

Mashall Ivey, age 43, passed away at home Monday, July 26. Those who met or knew him, loved and respected him.

A graduate of Hudson's Bay High (honors), Washington State University, Pullman (cum laude) and Willamette University College of Law (cum laude). After graduating from WSU, he clerked at Arin Dunn, PS, Vancouver. While attending law school, he was a law clerk at O'Neill & Evans, Salem, and the U.S. Attorney's Office in Portland. Memberships include several honor societies including the Order of Barristers, Willamette Moot Court Executive Board Member and Treasurer, Willamette Law Online United States Supreme Court Service Editor, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, WSU Alum. He was a legal analyst at Thomas Reuters and currently employed at MODA Health, Legal Regulatory Affairs.

He loved playing youth baseball and basketball, high school basketball and pickup games with friends; he enjoyed being a ref for youth teams. He loved talking about, reading about and watching sports, enjoyed hiking throughout the area, had a voracious appetite for reading, loved music and attending Pearl Jam concerts. He had a subtle sense of humor and liked to make people laugh. He was a humble man who was sentimental, traditional, trustworthy, scrupulous, a listener and caring. If it was your birthday, you could count on a call, text or card from him. He loved the Christmas season, celebrations and driving around looking at holiday lights.

He was a volunteer for the Street Law Program, Clark County Walk and Knock, Meals on Wheels, Portland.

There are no adequate words to express how much Marshall will be missed by his mom, Judy Ivey; sister, Apryl Ivey; dad, Bill Ivey; friends, aunts, uncles, and cousins. A service to share memories will be held Friday, Aug. 27, 3 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver.
