

Martha Ann Cieglo

November 17, 1948 - September 18, 2016

MARTHA ANN (HENNAGIN) CIEGLO November 17, 1948 ~ September 18, 2016 Martha crossed the rainbow bridge to begin a new journey on September 18, 2016. She was first diagnosed with appendix carcinoma in October 2015. The love of her family and laughter of dear friends sustained her. Her canine companion, Dexter, kept her toes and heart warm. The medical care and honesty of her oncologist, Dr. Lewis Steinberg, gave her a quality of life that was so important to her. The hospice support provided by Peace Health Southwest for her and the family was a wonderful gift. She was born November 17, 1948 in Royal Oak, Michigan to Robert Brigham Hennagin and Loretta nee Smith. When Martha was 10 the family moved to Highland Park Michigan where Martha graduated from High School in 1966. Her siblings were Sue Ellen Smith Gazda (Bob), who predeceased her. Her sister Jane L. Doppke (Tom) of Sterling Heights, Michigan and a brother Rev. Robert S. Hennagin of Montgomery, Alabama survive her. On July 7, 1979 she married David Vern Cieglo at St. John's Episcopal Church in Detroit, Michigan. Their daughter Sarah L. Cieglo resides in Manchester, Connecticut and son Peter D. Cieglo lives in Vancouver, Washington. A step-son, Donald S. Cieglo resides in Redford, Michigan. Visitation will be followed by a Funeral services to be held at Evergreen Memorial Chapel on September 25, 2016 at three o'clock officiated by her brother Rev. Hennagin. A private burial will be held in the Arlington West garden at Evergreen Memorial.
