Martha Ann Feenaughty Harris

August 31, 1932 - December 12, 2022

Martha was born in Northeast Portland to Donald J. and Bertha Feenaughty. She attended Fernwood grade school and Grant High School, graduating in 1950. After high school Martha attended the University of Oregon and received her degree in political science. During her college years, she vacationed with her sorority sisters to Hawaii. Martha moved to San Francisco after graduating and worked with various brokerage firms in the financial district. While living in San Francisco she met fellow Fernwood and Grant High student Danny Harris. They married in 1960 and moved back to Portland.

Martha was a devoted mother and grandmother, an avid reader and loved baseball. She enjoyed traveling to many baseball fields across the US. Her favorite team was the Atlanta Braves.

She was preceded in death by her brother Donald Jr., sister Janet, husband Danny, in 2006, and her son Theodore (Ted) in 2022.

Martha is survived by her sons: Doyle (Wendy), Randall (Kym), her grandchildren: Myles, Josie (Dan), Grant (Amanda), Brendan (Nina), Stephen and Amanda, and her great-grandchildren: Lyla, Piper, Baker, and Ray.

Her heart shined bright, and she is deeply missed.

The family would like to thank Riverfront Adult Family Home for taking care of Martha.
