“Mary was like a second mom to me and my sisters growing up. My sister Beth and Bonnie were best friends. We always enjoyed going next door to the Gladsons to watch their color TV they had the first one in the neighborhood. Mary was always so kind and welcoming. I remember my mom telling me that Mary had told her years later, about us kid when we were in high school having a BIG party while mom and dad were away. I'm glad she was watching over us, and that she waited years later to tell my mom. I just wish I could have seen her at least one more time before her passing.”
