“ Jimmy, Misty, and James and families I just heard about Mary Ann's death, and wanted to express to you my great sadness. She was a wonderful person and a great friend. I will always remember how much fun she was. We spent many nights together at each other's homes. She would come to my house and we would play with our bunnies or ride the horses. At her house we would play with the poodle puppies. We would stay up half the night talking about boys and the life we hoped to have. I know she loved you all and was contented with her life. Im sorry that we spent so many years without much contact. I will miss her very much. Sincerely Barbara Woods

“ My favorite memory was when Mary Ann and Jimmy had all the girl cousins for a sleepover. I think I remember cooking thinly sliced mushrooms and garlic. We leg wrestled and played all night.

“ I got to know Mary Ann when we were in first grade when we both had toothless smiles, and then throughout high school. We ran around together in the last year or two of high school. Mary Ann was always the one willing to drive when all of our friends went on an outing. After high school we didn't see one another much, marriage children, commitments always taking priority, but we always stayed in contact, wrote cards and letters catching up on each others lives each holiday season. Mary Ann was a most generous Friend, Mother, Wife, Grandmother & Aunt. Her family was her focus and she was so proud of them. She was always willing to listen & try and help in any way she could. I will miss her bright smile and caring spirit. She live on in all our collective memories.

“ Uncle Jim, Misty, James, and all of her grandchildren, Every time a special event happens, or when you're just cuddling together sippin hot cocoa, or laughing while playing games, or you hear a song, reminding you of her; know she's smiling with you and beside you in all that you do. When I hear about these times, is when I will be thinking about her as well, knowing you carry her in your hearts, and forever, I will too. Love you, Penny
