

Mary Lou Hart

June 6, 1933 - June 14, 2020

Mary was born in Palmer Nebraska to Roy and Francis Walling and moved to Vancouver during World War II where her father worked in the shipyards. The whole family made their way west in a Ford model A and included one sister , Vivian, and four brothers, Bud, Jim, Gordon, and Monte. Mary went to Felida elementary, Shumway Junior high and graduated from Fort Vancouver high school in 1951. Mary was an usher at Kiggins theater and worked at many retail stores in Vancouver. Mary married her childhood sweetheart Pat Hart and they had two sons Jim and Mark Hart. Family was the center of Mary's world. Jim's wife Sue and Mark's wife Kathy and grandchildren Elaine, Craig, and Nicole and grandson-in-law Daniel Schatz, Nicole's husband. More recently, Mary loved to spend time with her great granddaughters Eyla and Frankie. In the 60's Pat and Mary built and operated Pine Crest Golf Course and later partnered with Jim and Sue to build Hartwood Golf Course. In retirement, Mary made beautiful stained glass works and still holds the family fishing record of a 40 pound salmon. Mary was a wonderful person to everyone and will be missed by many.

“ Dear Aunt Mary was such a sweet soul. Always happy, laughing, and uplifting to those around her. I loved her relationship with my mom, her sister Vivian. She was always so generous to her and I am so thankful they had each other. She always called me by her nickname for me, Shanny. I love you, Shanny
