“ Seriously?1000 characters? I should feel sorry for anyone with memories of only 1000 characters so here's the abbreviated version. Aunt Mary had a sense of humor that could leave me laughing until I cried. She taught me the fine art of sarcasm that is both blessing and curse. Her home was always spotless and you could eat off the floors she insisted on mopping even into her 80s when she needed a walker. This activity caused more than one fall. See you later, Aunt Mary. Say hello to everyone and hug Debra.
