“ Lane....it's still so hard to believe your gone. I remember you talking about how happy you were the last time I seen you. I was suppose to watch the kids for you and Chrissy so you guys could have some time together. It's still a big shock to me...I know that you are forever watching over your babies. And I know that your still here with us in a way. Watch over us Lane and don't be a stranger continue to lend that helping hand like you always do..miss you bud..Rest peacefully for us..

“ My deepest sympathy to Lane's family and friends. My directionally challenged friend didn't need a map to make this trip to Heaven. I know you are still watching over your children. Always making sure we were all ok. Such a caring young man! You were my candy man....leaving pieces of candy on my desk! Lane would joke, asking, 'do you need a hug?' Today we all need that hug! Smart. Witty. Well read. Tell his story. Talk about him. Keep his memory alive for the kids!!!

“ To Lane's Family, I am so sorry. Lane loved his kids, had such a kind heart and always a smile on his face. I was one of the last to talk to Lane at Cross that day. I will forever remember our conversation. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
