

Melvin Leon Whisenhunt

April 28, 1938 - February 7, 2014

MELVIN LEON WHISENHUNT April 28, 1938 ~ February 7, 2014 "He was an avid outdoorsman with a love of Nature." Melvin Leon Whisenhunt, 75, of Vancouver, WA, passed away at home Feb. 7, 2014. He was born April 28, 1938 to Claude and Margaret (Kennedy) Whisenhunt in Ponca City, CA. He later attended Vancouver High School. Melvin was in the Washington National Guard from 1957-1959 and during that time was married to Patty Schumsky (1957-1972), and together they had four children. Melvin worked at Boise Cascade Vancouver (1956-1968) and Albers Mills (1968-1974). He was a Security Specialist at PDX and retired from SEH America. Melvin was a sportsman who loved the outdoors, fishing, woodworking, and cheering at his local sports events. Survivors include sons, Brent, Norman and Tracy. He was preceded in death by his son, Phillip; father, Claude; mother, Margaret; and his brother, John. A memorial service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in the chapel on Fri., Feb. 14, 2014 at 3:00 p.m. with hospitality to follow. -

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:46 PM

PH

“ he was a really nice person.we will miss him. my prayers are wheth the family.we all loved him.i reamember when I met him.i kne right there he was a wonderfull friend,darell and I will miss him dearly.

paula eckman and darrell holtz - February 14, 2014 at 12:00 AM

TD

“ Mel was our neighbor, and friend. I've always said good neighbors worth a lot, bad neighbors are worth nothing. Mel was a great neighbor. We helped each other with yard work, trim trees cut grass, catch moles, and spend time on the river trying to catch a salmon... He is at the top of my "nicest people I have ever met" list. We love him and miss him, and will never forget him.

Tom and Sandy Dickinson - February 13, 2014 at 12:00 AM