“ Aunt Michelle, you have always been a hero to me, you were always there for me and it's still hard to believe you're with us anymore. I still remember you teaching me you are my sunshine ,and sorting out your jewelry while you babysat me. You were and still are my second mother and nothing is ever going to change that. Love truly your daughter ,Emily

“ Eli and Zac, your mother was a wonderful free spirit who has now dedicated her new spirit by becoming your very own guardian angel. Michelle and I shared many cherished moments. To include our time with you boys in your earlier years. It was simply a pleasure to see how much you two lit up her eyes/heart. I too will miss her HUGE smile and beautiful teeth, last her passion for everything simple/natural. Michelle you are now a spirit who can view us all. Be blessed in your new spiritual venture and check in with us in our dreams so we can say hi back at cha! Your friend Rebeka (Remember Michelle I now live back East OK!)

“ Michelle - I will always remember your smile and voice. You were always so soft and ladylike. I respected your opinions and appreciated all you did on the diversity council at the base. You meant a lot to me and I enjoyed working with you. Rest in peace.

“ All of us here at the Northwest Service Academy will miss you Michelle. We loved having you as our AmeriCorps member, we loved your smile and excitement over your newfound environmental knowledge and we know that you are tending the gardens in heaven right now. Blessings to you Bob and all of those in her life.

“ I met Bob and Michelle years ago at the annual blues festival, they were our camping neighbors....Michelle with her beautiful smile and generous "river" hugs...Bob always like a puppy who worshiped the ground she walked on and always loving on her, I remember her traditions of blue toe polish and friends rocks. Michelle is an angel..Bob, my heart is heavy with sadness for your loss and your pain...you are in my thoughts and prayers. Hugs to you my friend.

“ I will miss you my baby sister. You were the only one I had so now what do I do? I will always remember staying up late when we should've been in bed...playing with make-up and doing our polish. My heart hurts so bad, yet knowing you are in heaven with God, and no longer in emotional turmoil makes the pain lighter. I know how torn inside you have been over the past few years-You are truly in God's care now. Zach and Eli...Please know that I will always be here for you and I love you. Dad and Mom...I'm so sorry!
