“ Mindy, every day I miss you more and more and you're always on my mind. I guess this is what it's come to, me signing this virtual book in hopes to reach out.... I can't be near trains, I freak out and if I hear a train come by I sit and cover my ears as hard as I can because I can't be around them You were such a good friend, always making me smile, laughing and crying all at once. Walking through the mall making fun of peoples crazy outfits. Running our toes in the sand as we watch the waves come up to shore. Painting each others nails, spitting chocolate milk out our noses. You were one person who always stood by me no matter what, didn't believe rumors, you were a kind hearted person, who liked to be friends with everyone. I miss your sweet face and your crazy purple hair. I just miss you and I need you Mindy. You will never be forgotten, never. "I feel it on the inside, twisting and contorting, memory has shaped me once again" Thinking of you everyday, wish you were here. Hope you're at peace, with the angels that surround. I love you.

“ Hey, Mindy. I know I haven't talked to you for a long time... it may have been way back in sixth grade. Remember we had Tech Ed together, and the teacher called you "Toaster" because he mispronounced your last name? I remember that very well, for some reason. I miss riding the bus with you. I miss the lunches we spent together in the fifth and sixth grade, walking around, just talking about stuff. I'm sad that when we went to different schools, we didn't stay in touch. I never got to tell you this, but you were a truly amazing friend, never asking anything of me other than to just be myself. I hope to see you again someday on the other side. Love, Catherine.

“ Mindy, It is so hard to believe that come Friday, you will have been gone for a year from us. It seems like it was yesterday, you were asking me what time I get off work and what the weather is going to be like. Yet it seems like it been so long. Sweetheart, we all miss you so very much and love you more than you can imagine. I wish that you were still with us on earth, but I know that God only takes the best. We will be together again someday. Grandpa is driving a dump truck. He say's it is alot like you were, so he named it Duckie, I hope you don't mind. He misses you so much. There isn't a day go by that we don't talk about you or see something that you would of liked or wanted. We all miss you, We all love you. I tell you good morning , good night, and I love you everyday. When the babies see your picture, they all say that is Mimmi, they know who you are and will always know. Mindy, I love you and miss you so much, but I know that I will see you again in Heaven. I LOVE YOU, MINDY!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Grandma 2011

“I can't believe you've been gone for a little over 8 months now. It seems like just yesterday, you, me and Matt were just hanging out in art. I miss you sooooo much Mindy, you don't even know. I feel like there is a hole in my heart now that you're not here. I know you'd look at me and say "wow, that was cheesy Taylor" but that's honestly the only way I can describe how it feels. Nothing is the same without you. I LOVE YOU MINDY LYNN and no matter what, you'll ALWAYS be my best friend, my lost sister and my Mindykins, just like I'll always be your Taybear! Rest In Peace.

“ Mindy, Its been a little over a month now, and i havnt stopped thinking about you. Your my Best friend and i love you. ill never never forget you.. i didnt beleive my mom when she told me about what happened, i texted your phone because i didnt want to beleive her. you always always texted me back even if you were in class, no matter if you got in trouble or not. and when you didnt text me back... it was like a black wall hit me. i couldnt function the week after you passed.. i think to myself everyday that this is all a bad dream that happened and that ill wake up and youll be here again, and everything will go back to normal.. my mom and dad even cried when we knew for sure what happened, and my mom is really really heartbroken that she couldnt make it to your funeral, but my dad went.. i know that your up there watching over all of your friends right now, and i hope to see you when i get up there as well. i love you girl and i hope you knew that.. i had the best freshmen and part of sophmore year with you, i wouldnt have gotten through those two years without you. i feel horibal that i didnt talk to you the week before you passed.. i feel like i could have done something, asked you to come over or something.. maybe this wouldnt have happened.. but i cant turn back time and i know you wouldnt want me to feel like this. you told me once, that when you pass, you wanted me to party like theres no tomorrow, and the night i found out, i did. i partyed till i couldnt stand. it made the pain subside for the night. but i know that i cant do stuff like that to make the pain go away because it wont. all in all babe i miss you, i love you and ill never forget about you for as long as i live and even after that, if there really is a heaven, i hope to god i see you again. ~Heather~

“ My Dear Mindy, I miss you so very much. I really wish that you were still here with me and the rest of the family. But, I know that God wanted you to come home with him. I know that your watching over everyone of us. You will always be with me, in memories and heart and everyone else that knew and loved you. I tell you every morning that I love you and have a good day. Then at night, I tell you I love you, good-night. When I go to the store, I expect to hear you say, Grandma, can I go with you? I say yes. I miss you so much. I love you more than I could ever express or words could ever say. I just know that in heaven, helping all the baby angels get their wings. All of the babies here will never forget you. We will keep telling them all about you and show them pictures of you. I Love You, Sweetheart! I will see you again some day. Grandma

“ Dear Mindy, I have read all these things people have said and I cried. You touched these people’s hearts. You are in no more pain looking over your family. You know that saying they “they grow up in just a blink of an eye” well its true. I know how your family must feel alone and lost without you but there not because you are always with them no matter how far away it must seem to them you are always right beside them asking them not to cry because you are in no pain and you feel happy. You want to rap your arms around them and give them a hug and tell them everything is going to be alright I will see you soon. When they come home to haven I hope you are the first face they see. I am so sorry that you had to leave us and I did not get to know you but I wish I could have. Yours truly Courtney

“ To Mindy's Dear Parents and Family, Please accept my sincere condolences. The loss of a child has to be the most devastating thing there is. At times like these, "God is near to those who are broken at heart; And those crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) I hope this will bring you a measure of comfort. I just wanted to tell you about a promise from God that states in the near future, that we can see our dead loved ones right here on the earth. "Death is an enemy", as the Bible states, and "soon it will be brought to nothing" (1 Cor. 15:26) There will be no more tears, pain, or sorrow, as the former things will be passed away-Rev. 21:3,4. May your warm memories and sure scriptural hope sustain you at this difficult time.
