Myra Juanita Stelter was born Oct. 15, 1925, in Magnolia, AR, to Watson and Alma Heath. She met her husband Robert at a USO dance and they were married Jan. 28, 1947. They were happily married for 50 years before his passing in 1997. She was so proud of their two daughters Kay and Jean and enjoyed being very involved with their activities and lives.

Throughout her adult life she worked for Portland Public Schools and had a long career at U.S. Bank. She was a woman of very strong faith. As a member of Bethel Lutheran Church, she enjoyed quilting and being a part of her Keenagers group. She absolutely loved traveling! Trips back home to Arkansas, motor home trips to Yuma every year with her husband, cruises with friends, and family vacations to Disneyland and Hawaii are some of the highlights. She loved being with her family and made sure to make every holiday special for everyone. Her kindness, sense of humor, and joy are just some of the things that made her memorable to every person that got the chance to meet her.

Juanita is survived by daughters, Kay (Gene) and Jean (Dave); grand kids, Kelly (Jeff), Travis (Hollie), Amanda (Junior), Spencer and Connor (Alisha); great-grand kids, Cody, Dominic, Elliott, Samuel, Henry, Cooper, Emersyn, Addilyn, and Emma.
