

Myrna Joy Stolk

September 21, 1940 - May 17, 2020

Joy Stolk began her journey on September 21, 1940 in Kamiah, ID, the second of four children born to Ed and Jean Mason.

Joy spent the first 3-years of her life in Kamiah and in 1943 the family moved to Vancouver, WA where she was raised with her three siblings Patricia, James and Frank. She graduated from Hudson's Bay High School in 1958. In 1961, she moved to Los Angeles, CA with her parents and younger brothers, where she made bookkeeping her profession. She met and married her first husband in 1964 producing her first child Rebecca. In 1969, she united with her second husband, Bill Stolk, expanding their family with two more children, Rick and Stephenie. In 1976, she moved to Portland, OR with her family and eventually opened her own business, Portland Window and Door.

Joy was called Mom and Grandma by many, opening up her home to all. Joy loved reading, movies, and spending time with her kids and grandkids.

Sadly, Joy passed away May 17, 2020. Joy leaves behind her three children Rebecca, Rick and Stephenie; two stepchildren Jennifer and Paula; seven grandchildren Erica, Mikey, Brandon, Lauren, Hannah, Austin and Haven; two great grandchildren, Daisha and Sabastian; her three siblings; and a host of nieces and nephews and loved ones. She is preceded in death by her parents Ed and Jean Mason.

She was loved by many and leaves behind many memories. We will all cherish those memories she made with us. Rest in love, Mom.
