

Myrtle Elaine Wilson

September 20, 1926 - June 26, 2011

Myrtle Elaine Wilson, Seattle, WA Myrtle was born on September 20, 1926 to Virgil and Evae Moon in Springfield, Oregon. She grew up with her eleven brothers and sisters in Yelm, Washington. Teased by her brothers for being "the scrapings of the dough pot", her father said that made her the best of the batch. At a high school dance, she met the love of her life, Lloyd Wilson, and told her friend "That's the man I'm going to marry!" They were married on December 22, 1945. Myrtle and Lloyd resided in their West Seattle home for 64 years. They would also visit their trailer home in Yuma, Arizona to avoid the cold of winter. Lloyd passed away in Vancouver, WA, August 11, 2005 Myrtle is survived by her two sons and their wives Larry and Leslie Wilson, Ken and Christine Wilson, and foster son and wife Don and Darlene Deems, her three grandchildren and spouses, Amanda and Ben Kapelka, Adam and Kary Wilson, Allison and Jesse Vaughn, and four great grandchildren Benjamin and Clara (Amanda), Wren and Olive (Adam) Myrtles' sweet smile has touched all of us in so many ways. We will miss her.

“ My heart goes out to Aunt Myrtle's family and loved ones. Her sweet, kind, polite and joyful spirit will always be remembered as well as memories cherished at the many family gatherings for special occasions our family attended. Myself, mom, Carol and other family members send comfort and surrounding peace to all the family and loved ones. Myrt and Lloyd were special people as well as an Aunt & Uncle to me. God's love and blessings to you all.

“ Aunt Myrt was such a happy, nice and lovely person to be around. I do not ever remember her being cross or unpleasant all of the years I have known her. I always felt uplifted to see her because she had such a positive energy. What I loved the most about her was the way she was amused by Uncle Lloyd - he would do something that was so "Uncle Lloyd" usually something a bit mischievous and she would say "Oh Lloyd.." with the biggest grin on her face! I loved how Uncle Lloyd and Aunt Myrt were together and their relationship was a wonderful example of a great couple. I am saddened by my Aunt Myrt's passing, but I am so grateful she has been a part of my life. My sincerest support and understanding at the loss of your mom, your mother-in-law, your grandmother and your great grandmother and I send my love and sympathy to all of Myrt's immediate family.
